TEAM EFFORT

Non-profit organization Business is a total team effort which is only as strong as the weakest link. To be successful requires total dedication, effort and commitment of all board of directors and board of trustee. The public only sees the iceberg—the officers.

SAEA , Inc. is a successful organization because all board members work together as a team. Each department has top-notch quality people who ensure their responsibilities are effectively and efficiently carried out.

TRAINING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

– Provide counseling and mentorship for candidates pursuing careers in engineering services: This is a very general advising service to introduce careers in engineering services and help those interested navigate the pathway to those professional careers.

– Provide clinical exposure opportunities for juniors through externship, observer ship and research trainee positions.

– Provide tutoring programs: this will be for local chapters to coordinate

VALUES

Collaborative Performance with Excellence, Integrity and Professionalism. We promise to deliver all our commitment to our people, members and donors, with the highest standards of transparency, ethics and compliance
